

A record number of side events

This year will also see a record number of side events.

Returning for its 6th edition, the Arctic Shorts film evening will feature eight short films made by Arctic filmmakers. It will take place at Cinema Galleries in the Centre of Brussels on December 3rd starting at 7:00 pm.

Then from 9:00 am until 2:00 pm on Wednesday, December 4th, Arctic Frontiers Abroad and the University of Bergen will host an event on Sustainable Ocean Development and the Green Transition at NH Carrefour de l'Europe Hotel in Brussels city centre.

This event will be followed by a screening of the film Twice Colonized with Aaju Peter, Director Lin Alluna and Producer Emile Hertling Péronard at the Permanent Representation of Denmark to the European Union 2:30 pm - 5:30 pm on December 4th.

The final side event will be Observing, Understanding and Responding to Arctic Change, which will be hosted by the INTERACT nonprofit and the Embassy of Monaco at Town Hall Europe from 6:00 pm until 9:00 pm on December 4th

Further details about these side events have been posted on the Arctic Futures Symposium website.

Please note that registration for the Arctic Futures Symposium does not automatically guarantee access to all symposium side events. Registration for each side event must be done separately by the organiser of that side event.

We look forward to welcoming everyone in Brussels next week!
